

Andrea Barcio

Human Resources

Andrea Barcio is Head of Human Resources at CA Auto Bank, reconfirming the role he has held at FCA Bank since May 2019.

He started his career as a consultant. In 1993 he was a Training Specialist with ISVOR. In 1997 he joined Accenture, where he was a Senior Consultant until 2000, when he went to work for FGA in the Human Resources - Organization department until 2003.

After holding two different Human Resources positions, in the International Development and Central Staff area, in 2005 he became FGA's Head of Recruitment, a position that he left in 2007 to become head of human resources for Alfa Romeo, Lancia, Abarth, Brand Marketing Communication and Product Concept.

In 2010 he became Human Resources Business Partner FGA for the Central Functions, Quality and Supply Chain, a position that he held until 2014.

Between 2012 and 2016 he served as Human Resources Business Partner for Global Finance & ICT for FGA. As HRBP in EMEA, he also followed the Finance, Business Development and Turkey areas.

In October 2016 he was appointed head of human resources of FCA Bank's and Leasys's Business Unit Italy, a role he filled until April 2019.

Andrea Barcio was born in Siracusa (Italy) in 1967. He graduated from liceo classico high school, has a university degree in Sociology and obtained a Master in Human Resources.
